A few rough Words to Political Spunkers.

There is now our country a one of transcendent attraction taking age can overstate it or misunderstand its importance it all stands with and beneath the facts which forshad w this area through which our nation now passing in its struggle between free labor and slavery labor and capital and policy are numerous and of supreme interest. It is no wonder that in a case involving the different principles upon which the whole structure of our government rests—the principles and essence of the Declaration of Independence that the people as well as to press should speak out fully and freely on the momentous question now before them. Party warfare for the objects has in a great measure already swept down all party barriers; and will as the people come to view the matter in its true light, entirely erase those barriers and bring men together upon the first and fundamental principles of human freedom the freedom of individual thought the noble freedom of government

Upon those considerations it is natural it is right and proper that every effort should be made by the voice of the people by earnestly by argument and exhortation by prayer even to call all passion all prejudice and appeal all to thinking and contemplative forces of society and of the [illegible] These are of holiness compared to party slow subjects, our dearest rights are now [illegible] party and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] party [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

PIANOS!

WE are still the only authorized agents here for the above first class Pianos, as our new neighbors sturdily express it, in their advertisement in another part of this paper, "Mr. Chickering's est. Since then they have made the discovery that Brown & Allen's Pianos are quite as good an article as Mrs. Cole and Mr. Brown, (who by the way is a fine man, and an old friend of ours) was engaged in Mr. C's establishment up to the time of his decease, when the facts of the case are said to be set several years before.

Worth Reading.

WHEN, by long study and many experiments, a physician has discovered a new principle in medicine, by which pain may be removed and disease cured, more surely and effectually than before, it puts it entirely beyond his duty to bring it before the public as freely as to all an opportunity to profit by his discovery. For this reason the proprietor of the Albo Ointment and Sarsaparilla, having ascertained that they are infallible in the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Cancerous Humors, Fever Sores, Pimples, and other impurities of the blood, is convinced that nearly every community there must have tried their healing effects in permanent cures. Every agent is anxious to demonstrate them in his vicinity who have not tried them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

Rochester, Mass., 20th Dec., 1855

DR. J. C. AYER—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty to inform you of the wonderful effects of your Cherry Pectoral. My wife had been troubled with a severe cough for more than a year, and the cough was so violent that it would frequently cause her to vomit. She had taken a great deal of medicine, but found no relief, until she commenced taking your Cherry Pectoral. She has now taken two bottles, and the cough has entirely left her. I have also used your Pectoral in my family for a cold, and found it to be the best medicine I ever used. I believe it will cure the most severe cough, if taken in season. Yours, with respect,

ELIAS CONE, M. D.

WILSON LEE, Esq., of Derby, Ct., writes, 1st Nov., 1855: "I have seldom failed to cure a cough in a few hours, by a dose or two of your Cherry Pectoral, when the patient would consent to take it. I have used it in my family for the last thirty years, and consider it the best medicine for coughs, colds, and pulmonary complaints that has come under my observation during my practice of medicine."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

West Manchester, Pa., Feb. 4, 1854.

DR. AYER—Dear Sir: Having performed my part well in curing this disease, I feel called upon to bear testimony to the virtues of your Cherry Pectoral, which has relieved me of the asthma, from which I had suffered for many years. I have used your Pectoral for the benefit of my family and friends, and have found it the best medicine for the purpose I have ever known. I have also used it in my practice, and find it to be the most reliable remedy for the diseases of the throat and lungs. Yours, truly,

JOHN S. PARKE, Merchant.

A. A. SAMSEL, M. D., Alton, Missouri, November 6, 1854, writes: "I have no hesitation in saying that your Cherry Pectoral is the best medicine for consumptive patients we can use. I have used it in my practice for the last three years, and have found it to be the most reliable remedy for coughs, colds, and diseases of the throat and lungs."

We might add volumes of this sort, but the intelligent public are already aware of the virtues of the remedy in question, and it is only necessary to assure them that it still maintains its unrivalled efficacy in the cure of all diseases for which it is recommended.

Tiger's Sewing Machines.

TO PERSONS who desire to learn full and reliable information respecting SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES—their price, capabilities and uses, styles, improvements, and kind of work they are best adapted to do, and the manner in which operating them, and the terms upon which they can be obtained, can do so by applying at or writing to

I. M. SINGER & CO'S GAZETTE.

This paper is devoted entirely to Sewing Machine interests. Copies will be supplied gratis to those who desire.

N. B.—The unparalleled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several manufacturers of inferior machines to make infringements of our patents—of which we have sixteen. Suits for the infringement of our patents have recently been decided in our favor in the U. S. Circuit Court in New York, and in every case in which these suits have been prosecuted, the infringements have been declared illegal, and perpetual injunctions granted restraining the infringers from further violation of our rights. We have also obtained from the U. S. Courts, which will soon be settled. We hereby caution the public not to buy any Sewing Machines, as they can be compelled by law to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.

Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines—to persons properly qualified. Such an opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is seldom offered.

Newly improved machines prepared on liberal terms for old machines of every kind.

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Brick-dust, Scrofula Diseases, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause they may have originated and

No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and valuable remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the diseases named, in every instance where directions are strictly followed, and a fair trial given. It purifies the blood, and gives new life and vigor to the whole system, restoring the long lost complexion to a healthful clearness, and the patient to the full enjoyment of health and happiness.

Certain and Permanent.

This medicine always certain, and in fact, in all other remedies, a cure is certain to follow its use. It is a deadly foe to all impurities of the blood, and eradicates them from the system, leaving the organs of the body in a healthful condition to perform their functions.

Delay not a moment.

Those who are afflicted with any of the diseases named, should delay not a moment, but apply at once for a remedy that will cure them, and cure them speedily. Delay is dangerous. Disease fastens itself upon the system, and if not checked, undermines the constitution, and renders a cure impossible. Elmbold's Extract Buchu cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure.

Let no one hesitate on account of character, or certificates. Ours are from persons well known in this community, and whose statements can be relied on. Many of our most respectable citizens have certified to the wonderful cures performed by this remedy, and we refer to them with confidence. Many certificates have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, all concurring in the fact that this remedy is the most reliable yet discovered for the diseases for which it is recommended.
